Van Til's Apologetic. The sub-title of this work ... Indeed, the book is so word-for-word Van Til that there were times that I became confused if I was reading Van Til or Bahnsen. (This may have been compounded by the subtle font choices, which at times were difficult to distinguish.)

Van Til's Apologetic: Readings and Analysis by Greg L. Bahnsen

More than a simple Cook's tour of an influential apologist, Greg Bahnsen presents Van Til's theology as he actually wrote it, but with the added commentary necessary to bridge the gap between the perceived audience of the writer and the layman. Bahnsen doesn't oversimplify, but gives true commentary and context to spotlight the material in a way that even long-time Van Til readers will find ...
