What character would you cut from What's a Ghoul to Do?? Gilly, Steven, the parrot. So pretty much all of the supporting cast. All they did was manipulate and push M.J. around. It was more than frustrating. Any additional comments? I know I picked on the reader over the computer talk, but really the blame should be shared with the author too.

Would you recommend What's a Ghoul to Do? to your friends? Why or why not? In this instance I think it would be a better read than a listen. The narator was whiney and I think her best character was the voice she used for the parrot. The other three main characters didn't come off believable for me.
