So apparently I had read Vicious by VE Schwab before when it first came on the market in Australia but I Gandalf'd hardcore and I'm so confused why because, frankly, it's freaking fantastic.... Let me start by saying it reads slowly. But not that slowly that you want to dispose of it in a sink fire, page by page (those who have read it will see what I did there..).

This is the second year I've set a goal of 100 books, and the second time I've managed to reach that goal, so I'll be setting the same one in 2017, with the hope of seeing a higher percentage of PoC and LGBTQIA on my end-of-the-year report. VICIOUS was the first Victoria/V.E. Schwab book that I've read, and it was just as badass as I'd hoped it would be. The struggle between Victor and Eli, both of whom are wrestling some major personal demons, says so much about our perceptions of good and evil without being preachy or didactic.
