Dear precious ladies, I am a pastors' wife, married for 32 years, and for about 25 years, have felt the pain of doing all that one can to keep a marriage afloat for God's glory and for your family's sake. The church and the pulpit became my husband's first love and priority. It wasn't always that way but somehow pride and arrogance crept into our family life.

About a year ago, I wrote a series of posts about my experience with the fantasies of a better life that often prompt depressed men to leave their families. You can find the first of those stories here, here and here. Those brief pieces tell only a small part of a long and troubling story. To stay in recovery I have to know more, and so I'm starting a new series of posts specifically about [...]
