As I've mentioned many times, there are overlaps in the realms of grief/loss and breast cancer that I discover, or more accurately, come to realize when writing about either of them. One of the things that comes up time and time again in both realms is the pressure people often feel to move on from [...]

All through 2012 and into 2013 I kept a list of the books I hoped to write about for Bubba's Book Club. (The key word was "hoped.") Unlike most book reviewers, I have the luxury of choosing to read only books that I expect to enjoy — whether on the strength of a good review, a friend's recommendation, or a taste for the author's previous work.

From the European Romantics of the 18 th century avant-garde to the pre-WWI Bohemians, the world's been struck by many a powerful counter-cultural movement. The one that's closest to our hearts, though, spanned the mid-twentieth century, and was rooted in the USA: from the post-War 1940s right through to the early days of the 1970s, America was bombarded with hippies, flower-power, drop ...

19 When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” 20 After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. 21 Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you.
