You see, our dogs are like a mirror to our souls. They are a reflection of us, and can act like a mirror which means that very often... we are the problem and we are the solution to our dog problems! If we are angry, short-tempered, or have anxiety, a dog is likely to reflect the same type of behavior.

Serious question: When your dog looks in the mirror, what does he see? A playmate, maybe. An adversary, sometimes. But could he possibly recognize himself? For that matter — does a dog have a sense of “self”? These are abstract questions, and it is too bad for us that dogs can't answer for themselves.
