review 2: Wedding Can Be Murder was very enjoyable, for me. It is a light chick literature with some aspects of suspense because of a murder case. The love story didn't go around the bush. Although it did took some time to "get their heads on the game", it was alright. The suspense could have been be ...

The locals are very friendly, if a bit eccentric. No pictures, please, or you may find yourself a guest of the county morgue. Photojournalist Shala Winters already had her hands full bringing tourism to this backward, Podunk town, but her job just got tougher. Pictures can say a thousand words, and one of Shala's is screaming bloody murder.
