Even though this could be considered historical fiction, it didn't really have that feel to it. It wasn't bogged down with a lot of boring historical facts. It was fast-paced, and adventurous. And if all the fighting, adventure, mystery and time travel wasn't enough, Waterfall has a perfectly frustrating, but absolutely sigh-worthy romance.

Reading Teen: Waterfall (River of Time #1) by Lisa T. Bergren

Waterfall: A Novel (February 2011) is the beginning book of The River of Time Series by Lisa T. Bergren. Despite being worried that I dozed off at some amazing point of the story which would clue me in on why this YA novel is even named Waterfall, I am happy to report that I didn't sleep through the rest of it.

me, really focusing, for the first time. I surged into action, just steps behind her. Mom crawled up and over the arc of the structure, which was little more than thigh-high it was so buried, and then reached back to pull the flashlight from her waistband. I took hold of her belt as she leaned over and then into the hole, her head Venta Rapid in Latvia, said to be Europe's widest waterfall, is more than 800 feet (240 m) wide but only about 6 feet (1.8 m) high. Victoria Falls, on the Zambezi river along the border between Zimbabwe and Zambia, is among the largest waterfalls in the world. During periods of high flow, it creates an unbroken sheet of water more than a mile wide.
