The question of whether it is right to eat animal flesh is among the most prominent topics in food ethics. People choose not to eat meat for various reasons such as concern for animal welfare, the environmental impact of meat production (environmental vegetarianism), and health considerations. Some argue that slaughtering animals solely because people enjoy the taste of meat is morally wrong ...

It's an extraordinary claim. Is there any evidence for it at all? Well, no. Plenty of assertions, and no evidence. However, while that which can be asserted without evidence can be dismissed without evidence, that won't necessarily help you in a debate, where the burden of proof can be unfairly shifted from the perspective of the audience by asking the pointed questions the argument is ...
