By the time the Buddha arrives in heaven, Sun Wukong is fighting "thirty-six thunder deities because why not." You get the feeling that the author would have had the Kitchen Sink Included if such things existed back then.; The summarization of the third part of Journey to the West is also full of funny things.. Wukong having a background saying "expert at kicking ass" with a "demon" stuck there.

Myth is a powerful component of human culture, and presumably this will be true in the science fiction future. Space explorers and interstellar colonists will have new myths to sustain them. And on a more mundane level, science fiction authors can harvest ancient myths to fortify novels they write.
