Fashion in the 1950s brought the world out of the conservative war years and into the dazzling '50s. Dresses were bigger, accessories richer, hairstyles taller, and shoes....well plainer. With so much new emphasis on the rest of women's fashion, 1950s shoe styles became understated accessories. Instead of bold patterns and a pile of fancy adornments, shoes were basic classy single color ...

For a budget bathroom update, Patti Wagner and her husband replaced the damaged green floor tiles with inexpensive hexagon-shaped white tiles in their Minneapolis home. "The white floor really makes the room look bigger," says Wagner, a senior product designer for Target. They also maximized the small space by keeping the existing pedestal sink and large medicine cabinet.
