AnchorPoint Therefore we do not lose heart. Even though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen.

What is a Mantra? A sound, syllable, word, or group of words that is considered capable of "creating transformation." The Sanskrit word mantra consists of the root man- "to think" (also in manas "mind") and the suffix -tra, meaning "tools or instruments", hence a literal translation would be "instrument of thought".

Fell running, also sometimes known as hill running, is the sport of running and racing, off-road, over upland country where the gradient climbed is a significant component of the difficulty. The name arises from the origins of the English sport on the fells of northern Britain, especially those in the Lake District. It has elements of trail running, cross country and mountain running, but is ...
