That really is tremendous growth. Now we can ask, does this kind of growth require mass conversions? As it turns out, this matches almost exactly the growth rate of the Mormon church over the past century. Mormonism has grown at 43% per decade, and without mass conversions. Exponential growth explains the explosion of Christianity perfectly.

How Agnostic Differs From Atheist. Many people are interested in distinguishing between the words agnostic and atheist. The difference is quite simple: atheist refers to someone who does not believe in the existence of a god or any gods, and agnostic refers to someone who doesn't know whether there is a god, or even if such a thing is knowable. This distinction can be troublesome to remember ...
