You Loved Me at My Darkest was so suspenseful I chewed off all my fingernails...really. I could not leave this book alone until I knew how it ended. This book really should serve as a warning, and perhaps a bit of a wake up for those of us untouched by the horrors of the underground sex slave trade.

You Loved Me At My Darkest is not an easy read. It's intense and deals with some very difficult subject matter. As intense as it was, I found myself unable to put this book down. I had to know how it would all turn out. I had to know if the sacrifices that were made, would pay off in the end. You Loved Me At My Darkest is dark, intense and ...

You Loved Me At My Darkest by Evie Harper, Paperback ...

You Loved Me At My Weakest is intense, frustrating and full of hope. It is a story about finding yourself, moving forward, letting go of the past and letting love in. This story is not easy and at times is frustrating. My heart went out to Emily and everything that she had to endure. I loved Kayne's love, strength and determination.
