Women Of The Left Bank

"cite>Women of the Left Bank is perhaps the most exciting book I've held in my hands all fall. It details and describes the lives (and relationships) of a community of women in Paris (1900-1940) that strongly parallels the feminist writing, publishing, thought-shaking community of our own times..." Women of the Left Bank - LotsOfEssays.com

The 'Women of the Left Bank' have been paid far less attention. A large community of female writers, critics and artists at the time remain marginal figures compared to their male counterparts. Although history has, for the most part, passed these women's writings and lives by, they were vitally important to the development of Modernism ...
