Wicked Prey (Lucas Davenport, No. 19): John Sandford ...

Wicked Prey is the 19th book in Sandford's Prey series and it's just as good as the first. I don't know what it is about Lucas Davenport that is just so intriguing but as long as the stories are good and Lucas is in them, I'm a fan.

Wicked Prey (Lucas Davenport, #19) by John Sandford

Wicked Prey is a disappointment, although it's still much superior to the standard-issue police procedural/crime thriller. In this 19th installment in the Lucas Davenport series, John Sandford again gives us memorable villains engaged in a complex, sophisticated plot to make out like, well, bandits at the 2008 Republican National Convention.

Wicked Prey (Lucas Davenport, No. 19) by John Sandford ...

No matter which series one reads, Sandford never disappoints. The plots are exquisitely intricate, the dialogue is so spot-on that about half a dozen times each book I read a passage to my wife, the character development for each major and most minor characters is satisfying , and something that is very important to me, you could pick up any of the books as your first experience with the ...
