tcookson December 18, 2013 at 10:45 pm. I agree that it’s more important to go if you’re new on the job, because you’re still setting people’s impressions of you. I’m not very comfortable at parties, either, so after attending my office’s holiday party for my first two years on the job, I reduced my attendance to every other year. People still have an impression that I do attend ...
