Japan, under Prime Minister Ōkuma Shigenobu and Foreign Minister Katō Takaaki, drafted the initial list of Twenty-One Demands, which were reviewed by the genrō and Emperor Taishō, and approved by the Diet. This list was presented to Yuan Shikai on January 18, 1915, with warnings of dire consequences if China were to reject them. The Twenty One Demands were grouped into five groups:

During the first half of the 20th century, the United States existed as two nations in one. The Supreme Court ruling in Plessy v. Ferguson (1896) decreed that the legislation of two separate societies — one black and one white — was permitted as long as the two were equal.. States across the North and South passed laws creating schools and public facilities for each race.

Differential protection of power generator is divided into longitudinal protection and transverse protection. The former refers to protection of longitudinal sections of single lines (which is of course why it is called "longitudinal"), and the latter to the protection of parallel lines (comparing currents in these parallel lines).
