Editions of Unraveling Oliver by Liz Nugent - Goodreads

As a reader, we are sucked in to the world of Oliver, turning the pages with great haste to see why he has hurt Alice so badly. I can't find any flaws in this novel; perfect protagonist, great supporting characters, (especially in France), and perfectly pitched chapters. Liz Nugent is a novelist to watch out for.

Unravelling Oliver by Liz Nugent | Writing.ie

Unraveling Oliver is the perfect title as the deeper you dig into the story, the more Liz Nugent reveals about Oliver. I was pleasantly surprised by how hooked I was on figuring out Oliver. There are a lot of twists and turns that you won't see coming.

The first manuscript ends up buried out back under the apple tree which is exactly where Unraveling Oliver belonged. I didn't return it because I listened all the way through--so keep my credit. But I won't download/buy another book by Liz Nugent which is exactly why it's a bad idea to publish weak material as an introduction to readers/listeners.
