Veteran, Gavin G Smith Gollancz, 391pp, £12.99 pbk I like Richard Morgan's novels, and the cover of Gavin G Smith's debut novel Veteran claims it is a debut on a par with Morgan's. We all take such marketing with a pinch of salt but, conversely, without such comparisons readers might never find new books they will enjoy.

Gavin G. Smith is somewhere in the middle. Veteran read like a violent computer game, and was virtually non-stop. As a result the credibility gap became increasingly wide, and the characterization suffered. No problem for those whose primary interest is action, but not much good for anyone interested in clever, involved plotting. ...
