Wonder Show by Hannah Barnaby - Goodreads

Wonder Show, the debut novel, by Hannah Barnaby is just such a book. It is a quick read and, while labeled a children's book, it contains many adult themes and views yet is perfectly suitable for children and adults of all ages. Wonder Show does not fit neatly into any one genre but, in my opinion, crosses over into many.

Wonder Show by Hannah Barnaby, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

Wonder Show is a YA that doesn't read like it means to teach teenagers something they don't want to hear. The story of a girl who seems to lose everything during the journey from child to teen, but escapes the limits of her world to find sanctuary in a very unlikely place, it kept my interest until the end. Ms. Barnaby inserts occasional ...

Her way with words wins her a place pitching the ballyhoo to the rubes who visit the titular Wonder Show. The languid, sensuous third-person account is periodically punctuated by the voices of Portia and the members of the Wonder Show, giving readers poignant insight into this fragile found family.
