Conversion Story. In "What Paul Meant," Garry Wills turns this standard reading of early Christianity on its head by arguing that Paul — even more than the four canonical Gospels — deserves to be recognized as our most reliable guide to Jesus' true teachings. While biblical literalists typically presume that Matthew, Mark,...

What Paul Meant by Garry Wills - Review | BookPage

Garry Wills: What Paul Meant. There have been other attempts to do with New Testament texts what Wills does here (Guy Davenport and Benjamin Urrutia had similar goals in their version of Jesus' sayings; Reynolds Price's Three Gospels is also worth consulting), but none seems to me as successful as Wills'.
