"What My Girlfriend Doesn't Know" is a sequel to "What My Mother Doesn't Know." It is told from Robin's POV and tells us what happens to Sophie and Robin after Sophie finds courage to make their relationship official. This book is just as good as the first one. I think Sones knows what is going on in teenage boys' heads very well.

What My Girlfriend Doesn't Know (2007) About book: Original post at One More Page I like reading novels in verse when I feel like I'm reading too slow, like how I have been doing lately. I figured reading this book right after I finish the chunkster that is Jane Eyre would help me cleanse the palate a bit and make me feel better because I read a book a bit faster than how I am currently doing.
