We are debt free! I can't wait to share how we paid off over $20,000 in debt in less than 9 months. Back when I first read about the concept of being "debt free" I immediately dismissed it. Ya right, there's absolutely no way we'll be able to do that on one low-income with one little kid and another one on the way. That's great for them, but they don't know how much debt we have ...

The external debt of Haiti is one of the main factors that has caused the country's persistent poverty. After the slaves declared themselves free and the country independent in 1804, France, with the complicity of its allies, demanded that the newly formed country pay the French government and French slaveholders the modern equivalent of US $21 billion dollars for the "theft" of the slaves ...

The debt grew despite Congressional threats to not raise the debt ceiling. In 2011, the U.S. debt crisis almost forced America to default on its debt. In 2012, the fiscal cliff crisis almost stopped the government in its tracks. In 2013, the government shut down for 15 days. Since these attempts didn't work, what can and should be done?
