Reading Email. When you read email, you can waste hours if you don't use this time intelligently. First, try using the "Two-Minute Rule" (a concept from David Allen, the author of Getting Things Done) when you read your mail - if the email will take less than two minutes to read and reply to, then take care of it right now, even if it's not a high priority.

At school, I loved maths/science and hated English. My writing was bad. I felt stupid because all the other kids used long words. Then a few years ago, a good friend of mine, who is a confidence coach, simply told me I was much better understood by others because I used plain and simple words.... none of these pompous long words.
