Homelessness is defined as living in housing that is below the minimum standard or lacks secure tenure. People can be categorized as homeless if they are: living on the streets (primary homelessness); moving between temporary shelters, including houses of friends, family and emergency accommodation (secondary homelessness); living in private boarding houses without a private bathroom and/or ...

George Orwell: The Fight against Totalitarianism. This year is the 100th anniversary of the birth of George Orwell. Therefore it seems an apt time to review the life and ideas of the author whom I considered from the age of 16 onwards to be my favourite author of all time, and this just based upon the reading of his two most famous works.

After watching a recent youtube video created by the DePaul Feminist Front showing their open support for DePaul Divest (which unfortunately has been taken down), I became intrigued with the dynamics of the liberal and feminist alliances.. One of these alliances that has been formed on all college campuses across the country is between feminists, Marxists, and radical Islamists on the issue of ...

This site is about seeing through the illusion of separation and waking up to the boundless wholeness that is all there is. Joan Tollifson has an affinity with Advaita, Zen Buddhism and radical nonduality but has her own unique and original expression. She points to the simplicity of what is, as it is -- the ever-present, ever-changing seamlessness of being.
