What I Remember Most; Cathy Lamb. Kensington - 2014. What I Remember Most was a terrific story and one that kept me wondering as I eagerly turned each page. Part mystery, part contemporary fiction, the only thing that the reader knows for sure is that the protagonist, Grenadine Scotch Wild, had a horrible childhood and as an adult her life is ...

Bibliophile By the Sea: What I Remember Most; Cathy Lamb

What I remember most about Cathy is her ability to tell great stories. She sure could make us laugh. I enjoyed working with her. Frank Mastny wrote: Mary Catherine McCarty Becker was one of a kind. I have worked with her for over 20 years and, like most of her loyal FM Global customers, I have grown to love her.
