Yellow Star is a 2006 biographical children's novel by Jennifer Roy. Written in free verse, it depicts life through the eyes of a young Jewish girl whose family was forced into the Łódź Ghetto in 1939 during World War II. Roy tells the story of her aunt Sylvia, who shared her childhood memories with Roy more than 50 years after the ghetto's liberation.

Yellow Star (novel) - Wikipedia

Because Yellow Star is written in free verse, it makes for a quick read. The Library Media Connection praised the author for using age-appropriate language: "When Sylvia witnesses the shooting of people in the street,...Roy captures the fear of the moment without graphic descriptions." And I really appreciated that.
