Upheavals of Thought: The Intelligence of Emotions. More literary and experiential than other philosophical works on emotion, Upheavals of Thought will engage the reader who has ever stopped to ask that question. Emotions such as grief, fear, anger and love seem to be alien forces that disturb our thoughts and plans.

Upheavals of Thought: The Intelligence of Emotions ...

In Upheavals of Thought Martha Nussbaum mounts an elegant and exhaustive defence of the role and centrality of emotion to human experience and ethics. In a work that manages to synthesize both literature and philosophy, without reducing either to a tool of the other discourse, Nussbaum makes the argument that any proper theory of ethics must have a substantive account of the role and function ...

I love a good history book. And love reading insider info on the mysteries of the U.S. Intelligence Community. Which means I have been looking forward to Vince Houghton's "Nuking The Moon" for quite a while. Vince is a special kind of historian, a person who not only looks for facts and meaning, but is skilled in expressing history in understandable ways.
