Lenny Cooper - What You Think Of Me Lyrics | Genius Lyrics

Baby, please say what you think of me, cause in your arms is where I wanna be, baby. I've learned a lot from the past, all the relationships I've been in. Hell, most were okay, but me and you, I know me can take it til the end.

LENNY COOPER - WHAT YOU THINK OF ME LYRICS

Another friend once shared with me one of the aphorisms of 12-step recovery programs: "What other people think of you is none of your business." Like a lot of wisdom, this sounds at first suspiciously similar to idiotic nonsense; obviously what other people think of you is your business, it's your main job in life to try to control it, to do tireless P.R. and spin control for yourself.

You'll Think of Me - Wikipedia

If you think about something this normally implies more focussed or extended attention. "I never thought of doing that!" (that possibility never crossed my mind). "Have you thought about my birthday present?" (have you considered/decided what to get me?) Much the same distinction applies to hear of/about.
